

Papua New Guinea's push to modernise its classrooms has gathered pace following the introduction of five new digital applications by the Department of Education, marking a major shift in ...

The reforms were initiated to establish relevant education for all Papua New Guineans based on the Philosophy of Education for Papua New Guinea (National Education Plan, 2020-2029).

In 2025, the program was rebranded as the Government Free Education Policy ...

In 2025, the program was rebranded as the Government Free Education Policy (GFEP), a renewed commitment by the current administration to pay tuition for all children in early childhood centres, ...

The Department of Education in Papua New Guinea plays a crucial role in shaping the country's education system and ensuring access to quality education for all citizens.

Learn more about education in Papua New Guinea, view grant information and education data, and explore the results and progress made by the country.

Education Sector Development Plan 2023-2027 Papua New Guinea National Education Plans 2024 Available in English

Papua New Guinea has taken another step towards digital transformation with the introduction of five new education applications designed to streamline school administration and ...

The $69.4 million program was funded by the Australian Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade (DFAT) between 2017-2022 to improve the coverage of quality basic services across Papua New ...

Explore the comprehensive education system in Papua New Guinea, including its historical evolution, structure of primary, secondary, and higher education, and the challenges it faces.

More than 375,000 children in some of the most underserved communities in Papua New Guinea (PNG) will benefit from a new landmark ...

More than 375,000 children in some of the most underserved communities in Papua New Guinea (PNG) will benefit from a new landmark education project that will improve classrooms, ...

Papua New Guinea EDFAQSFP-DD

Web: <https://safireschools.co.za>

