

Sierra Leone AI Server

The Ministry of Communication, Technology and Innovation (MoCTI) has signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with Qhala, a Nairobi-based digital transformation company, ...

Official digital-development and cybercrime texts create a verified early-signal posture, though the national AI strategy remains forthcoming.

The proactive approach positions Sierra Leone as a potential regional leader in ethical and inclusive AI adoption. By focusing on locally relevant ...

Sierra Leone's Chief Minister David Moinina Sengeh has underscored the pivotal role of Artificial Intelligence (AI) and technology in Sierra Leone's future, highlighting their potential to drive ...

The proactive approach positions Sierra Leone as a potential regional leader in ethical and inclusive AI adoption. By focusing on locally relevant priorities such as education, healthcare and ...

The plan is to use AI to fix real problems, like improving healthcare, boosting education, and supporting farmers. And if things go well, the country wants to be West Africa's AI hub by 2030.

Africell on Wednesday launched two new artificial intelligence-powered tools -- AI-EVA and AfroGPT -- aimed at expanding digital inclusion and local language access across Sierra ...

The assessment is evaluating Sierra Leone's preparedness across three essential pillars, Compute (infrastructure), Capacity (skills and talent), and Context (policy and regulation), while ...

Public services could become more efficient and responsive through AI-enhanced governance systems. Beyond direct applications, a well-executed AI strategy could attract ...

Ask Sabi Salone to search Sierra Leone's legal and policy sources on digital transformation, AI, data governance, and cybersecurity--then explain the exact parts that matter for your case or project.

The assessment carefully evaluates the nation's preparedness for AI adoption, focusing on three essential pillars: digital infrastructure and computing power, the capacity of its workforce and ...

The plan is to use AI to fix real problems, like improving healthcare, ...

Sierra Leone AI Server

Web: <https://safireschools.co.za>

